

From: David Bednarczyk
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/27/02 8:56pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The proposed settlement is only going to give Microsoft another market to consume. The education market has been an Apple domain and still is a viable solution for educators. Microsoft "donating" PC hardware and software will only further their strong hold in the PC world. Microsoft should give money to the schools to be used for whatever technology is needed.

Thank you,

David Bednarczyk
Senior IT Manager
dbednarczyk@earthlink.net